

Boddy Matthews Solicitors

PRESS RELEASE

February 2nd, 2014

Kate Matthews spoke as the English law legal expert on the panel on Commercial Rights and Remedies of Celebrities in the Global Market Place at the American Bar Association (ABA) Spring Meeting October 2013 in London to the International section. She also chaired the panel on Anti Corruption in the International arena with particular regard to Infrastructure Disputes for the ABA Meeting in October. Her Article on London was published by the International ABA magazine in October 2013.

Kate is an active promoter of the Law Society International Committee Section and a full participating member of the ABA in both the international Section and the specialist franchising section. Kate is the Coordinator for the South of England for Encouraging Women Into Franchising Association (EWIF) and a key Mentor in the EWIF Scheme. She also participates in and is an active supporter of Arab women in business through the Arab British Chamber of Commerce and Member of the American Women Lawyers in London group. Boddy Matthews is an Affiliate Law Firm to the British Franchising Association (BFA) and takes part in the BFA events with regular contributions. Kate has been an accredited Mediator with the BFA since 2010. Boddy Matthews is an active Member of EWIF and supports it at sector exhibitions eg. The Franchise Show 2013 and 2014 at Excel.

Kate Matthews will be speaking as a franchising legal expert at the WEBA Franchising & Partnerships Education Workshops on 28 and 29 April 2014 on what is a Franchise and the Advantages and Risks of Purchasing a Franchise and a second seminar on the legal aspects when buying a Franchise.